1.2

How will I know if I qualify for the 2022 GST Voucher – MediSave?

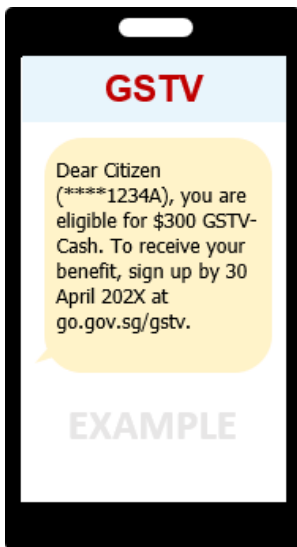

Eligible Singaporeans will be notified in July 2022.

2. Notification

2.1

How can I tell if the GST Voucher SMS I received is authentic?

With the recent rise in scam and phishing attempts, it is important to verify that the message received is genuine from the official source.

*This is only an example of a GSTV SMS. The actual SMS received may be different

Always remember:

- The SMS will always be sent by 'GSTV', Your masked NRIC (showing the last 4 numerals and letter, e.g. *1234A) will be in the SMS
- We will only inform citizens of their benefits and will never request for you to reply to the SMS
- We will never direct you to a non-Government site. If the SMS contains an url, always check that the domain ends with ".gov.sg". You may also search for the official website using search engines (e.g. Google) to ensure that the link is legitimate

- Ensure that the SMS meets all of the checks above before proceeding to click on the URL. After you've clicked through to the webpage, be extra vigilant before providing sensitive information such as your Singpass or bank account details. Look out for valid encryption certificates by checking for the lock in the browser's address bar:

- GST Voucher notifications will only be sent via letter, SMS or the Singpass app on your mobile phone. We do not use WhatsApp or other mobile app messaging platforms

You are encouraged to download the Singpass Mobile App at the Singpass website so that you can receive secured messages on your eligibility for GST Voucher and other Government schemes. Be cautious and let's work together to safeguard your personal information.
